INSTRUCTIONS

Order of the Crown of Charlemagne In the United States of America

Lineage Claim For Membership Instructions

COMPLETENESS AND UNIFORMITY in the preparation of Work Sheets and Applications, both original and supplemental will facilitate examination, appraisal and approval of them. These instructions are to be complied with as fully as possible.

THE WORK SHEET/PRELIMINARY WORD DOCUMENT:

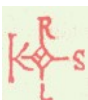

When a candidate for membership in the Order has been accepted by the Membership Committee to become a member and the Application Fees are received, the Registrar General will send the applicant a WORK SHEET/PRELIMINARY WORD DOCUMENT.

In filling out the form, lineage data should be as complete as possible to the best knowledge of the applicant. Names of all persons should be in full (not initials). (John Henry Jones). Dates are to be shown with the day of the month, then the month, then the year (6 March 1945).

REFERENCES:

References are to be cited which will PROVE the applicant's claim for each generation. Proof of parentage for each generation, including the applicant, is essential, i.e. that the person named first in a generation was the child of the couple named in the following generation.

- Where proof is found in unpublished 'PRIMARY' records, such as birth, baptism, marriage or death records in family Bibles, wills, deeds, census records, sworn statements of parents, grandparents, or other vital records, etc. each shall be listed in the references for the generation to which it pertains with the note "copy supplied" and photo or photo copies of them provided by the applicant. On each such photocopy the name(s), date(s), etc. and the generation(s) for which it is submitted as proof shown as "Gen# ____". When a record is from a family Bible submit photocopy of title page attached to the record.

____ Initials

- Published “SECONDARY” records are to be described by the full title in quotes, date of publication, author, volume and page for dates and places of birth, marriage, and death for the applicant and for the child. Photocopies of the publication along with the title page are required.

UNACCEPTED REFERENCES:

- References to Membership in other societies are not acceptable as proof
- LDS
- Group Sheets
- Internet genealogies or family genealogies that do not reflect primary sources

Unaccepted Publications:

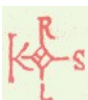

- “Magna Charta Barons” and “Americans of Royal Descent” by Browning
- “Magna Charta” by Wurts
- “Compendium of American Genealogy” by Virkus

If the genealogist in checking the preliminary application finds that he requires certain references and authorities, accompanying a submitted pedigree, to be examined or verified, or if these be foreign and not easily accessible, he shall notify the applicant of this requirement and obtain from the applicant permission to incur such expense on his behalf, which shall be paid by the applicant.

If the pedigree first submitted by an applicant shall be found upon examination not to be a sufficiently substantiated claim the application fees will be refunded less the administration cost of $150.00.

When the preliminary application is found satisfactory, it will be returned for final instructions.

Any questions on filling out this computer form please write or call Tracy Crocker at tracy@tracycrocker.com or 763-553-112
